Slough developer won't quit

By Bob Slate
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — Although the city Plan Commission turned down a proposed residential subdivision in the Dobrey Slough area, the developer said he is going ahead as planned.

The proposal for Pine Lake Estates, at the end of Pine Avenue, will come before the City Council Tuesday. It was "not accepted" by the Granite City Plan Commission on Nov. 8, but the commission is an advisory board and the City Council does not have to accept its recommendation.

Hamm Development, represented by Steve Lathrop of Granite City, proposed digging a two-acre lake, 15 feet deep, to enhance drainage, and building residences around the lake.

The development would include building within the city — which annexed the property in October — and outside the city, in Madison County's jurisdiction.

There has been a moratorium on building in the slough area since May 1973, but Lathrop said the moratorium does not apply to a home rule municipality like Granite City.

Under provisions of the moratorium, enacted by

Moratorium against building calls for stiff fine; issue goes to Granite City Council Tuesday the county board at the direction of the Illinois Division of Waterways, persons found guilty of violating the moratorium risk daily fines of not less than $5,000 and not more than $10,000.

Lathrop is asking the council to override the Plan Commission's recommendation.

Lathrop said that, prior to buying the property, he had talked to Walter "Shang" Greathouse, executive director of the Metro East Sanitary District. He said, "Greathouse agreed that it would hold storm water, and that we needed it, but that it really wasn't up to him."

Greathouse declined to comment on the issue Thursday and was unavailable Friday.

Lathrop said he also presented the proposal, in its early stages, to the Madison County Board's Land Use Committee, which "originally liked the idea, and told me to go ahead and check out the engineering and get more details."

But when county officials learned of the moratorium, according to Lathrop, they backed off "because it is a politically hot issue. Any time you get involved with water out here, it's a hot issue."

"I also talked to Helen Hawkins two or three months ago, and she said that she was for anything that would help."

"She also told my uncle, Howard Lathrop, who has been a supporter of her for a long time, that she was for it."

"But she reversed her position the night before the hearing. She did a flip-flop on me. She's going to run for political office again."

At the zoning hearing, Hawkins, longtime activist on matters relating to Dobrey Slough, related her long fight against development in the area, which has been plagued by flooding problems.

She said ignoring the moratorium could jeopardize federal and state grants that have been promised to this area for pumps and drainage work.

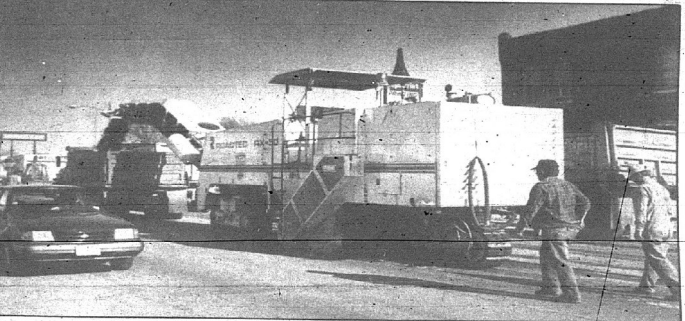

Hawkins said Friday she felt that she was misled by Lathrop, and was being used.

GIVE ME PARK AVENUE. Granite City residents would prefer to drive anywhere else but Madison Avenue these days. During the early stages of a massive resurfacing project, here, workers watch for traffic and help guide an asphalt grinding machine along the 2200 block of the street. The machine will remove all the asphalt from Namooki Road to 20th Street. The project is expected to take many weeks, perhaps longer if harsh weather sets in.

Issue splits wards — and aldermen

By Mike Myers
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — The municipal election is still more than four months away, but some city politicians have already begun accused of politicking.

At the City Council meeting the day after the general election, 7th Ward Alderman Emeril Dawes announced, out of the blue, that he thought it was time for the city to redraw its ward boundaries.

The suggestion brought an immediate loud and angry response from a number of aldermen who accused him of starting his re-election campaign early.

"I sure stirred it up, didn't I?" Dawes said the next day.

"It was really nothing sudden — two years ago I brought it up, but nobody cared — and I just thought it was a good time to do it. I knew it was a political bomb, but I didn't expect that."

At the meeting, Mayor Von Dee Cruse, no ally of Dawes, jumped in to defend him: "I think he's right. Maybe right after the next election."

Cruse's defense shocked Dawes: "I was very, very surprised — it almost floored me."

Although no one has picked them up yet, nomination petitions are already available for the April municipal election from City Clerk Robert Stevens.

The superintendent of streets and seven aldermen, one from each ward, will be elected. Filing opens Jan. 14 and closes at 5 p.m. Jan. 21. Petitions may be circulated until Jan. 21, according to Stevens.

Although Jan. 21 is the holiday to mark the birthday of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Stevens said his office will be open to accept the petitions.

Dawes' ward is one of the largest, both geographically and in population. Fellow 7th Ward Alderman Jeff Worthen accused Dawes of not being able to handle the job.

"That's not it," Dawes said. "It's just that our ward is getting so big that our people don't get proper representation on the council."

The city is way out of line with the "one man, one vote" concept, according to Cruse. He said the wards range from tiny to huge and "a change is long overdue."

Sixth Ward Alderman Judy Whitaker, who told Dawes, "If you can't handle the job, you shouldn't have made it," said the idea of realigning the wards was brought up at the wrong time and without regard to legality.

"It's stupid, it can't be done right now and he shouldn't have brought it up."

However, both Whitaker and Cruse have begun studying the legalities of the proposal. Redistricting hasn't been done in many years.

Cruse and Dawes both said the voting in the last city election supports their position.

All seven wards had hotly contested races in the April 1988 election and 5,410 votes were cast. Based only on the number of ballots cast, this would seem to indicate each ward should have approximately 1,344 voters.

The actual individual ward totals ranged from 2,000 in the 7th Ward to 687 in the 1st Ward.

The combined total for the 7th and 4th wards, 3,797, is slightly larger than the 3,766 combined total for the 2nd, 3rd, 5th and 1st wards.

The combined total for the 1st, 3rd and 5th wards, 1,588, is smaller than the individual ward totals for the 4th (1,797), 6th (1,772) and 7th (2,000).

The winning candidates in the 1st and 5th wards, with 416 and 404 votes, respectively, had fewer votes than five losing candidates in other wards — including the third-place finisher in the 4th Ward.

Five candidates, including losing candidates in the 6th and 7th wards, each got more votes than the 687 total vote in the 1st Ward. Two winning candidates drew more votes than the 5th Ward total of 671.

Ponderosa takes over Bonanza

GRANITE CITY — The Bonanza Family Restaurant at 5 Nameoki Village Shopping Center is now a Ponderosa.

"Yes, we're changing, but only the name," said John Smith, owner and operator.

"Your old Bonanza crew and restaurant are still here and ready to serve, but under a new name."

Ponderosa's second Granite City site at 1511 Johnson Road will remain open. While the Nameoki operation is a franchise, the Johnson Road site is a company owned restaurant.

The Ponderosa Steakhouse chain recently announced that 14 Metro East and St. Louis area Bonanza Family and York restaurants have been converted to Ponderosa restaurants.

"The change in the name is going to help in many ways," Smith said. "Becoming part of that system makes us stronger, and we will be able to benefit from its buying power."

Smith said the current downturn in the economy makes it particularly tough for a small franchise to go up against large organizations.

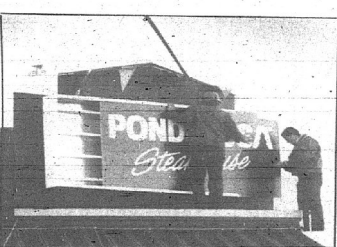

The large companies have the ability to ride out the tough times and still develop new products and systems," he said. "Becoming part of that system makes us stronger, and we will be able to benefit from its buying power."

"Still, being franchisees, we are locally owned and operated and can react quickly to our customers' wants and needs."

Granite City, Smith said, has always been one of Bonanza's favorite locations in the St. Louis metropolitan area market.

"With very loyal Granite City customers, we expect to be here a long time," Smith said.

In its six years of operation here, Smith said, Bonanza has become part of the community by

'Let's all vote'

BAC to put name change on ballot

BELLEVILLE — If you're writing out that tuition check to the local community college, you can still make the check payable to Belleville Area College.

After debating the issue of a name change for an hour at its meeting Wednesday night, the BAC Board of Trustees decided to put the question to voters in the form of an advisory, or non-binding, referendum. It will appear on the April 1991 ballot.

"As approved by the board in a 5-2 vote Wednesday night, the ballot question will read: 'Should the name of Community College District 522 Belleville Area College be changed to Community College District 522 College of Southwestern Illinois?'"

Woman makes 1,000-mile trek just for the health of it

GRANITE CITY — If you'd walked in Lois Meyenburg's shoes, you'd know how it feels to walk 1,000 miles in eight months — all on a safe, comfortable indoor walking track.

Meyenburg, of Granite City, a secretary, wife and mother of two, walks approximately 32 miles a week on the walking track in the Wellness Center at St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

"At that rate, she could easily put 1,664 miles on her tennis shoes every year."

Meyenburg has been a walker and runner for about 13 years. She started running in her neighborhood to lose weight. But now she has the benefit of exercising and keeping off weight without being chased by dogs or falling into potholes.

"I walk six days a week on the track in the Wellness Center. It sure beats some of the problems that walking outside poses, like dealing with poor weather, traffic and concrete that can be hard on your knees," Meyenburg said.

According to sports-medicine physicians at the Mayo Clinic, the best surface on which to jog, run or walk is a cushioned artificial track.

Jim Chiappa, director of the Wellness Center in Granite City, said Meyenburg is one of approximately 300 walkers using the Wellness Center track each week.

"Walking is a great exercise for anyone of any age. It is probably the easiest physical fitness activity because many people can participate, there is little instruction necessary and the likelihood of injury is lower," Chiappa said.

For Meyenburg, walking has become her own private time.

"The hardest part about any physical fitness activity is having determination. You have to do it all of the time and that takes time and effort," Meyenburg said.

"You just have to make time for yourself and decide your health is worth it."

The current Walking for Fun and Fitness session began Nov. 5.

MEDICAL ATTENTION is given to Granite City firefighter Mike Richardson, center, (facing camera) who was overcome by heat and smoke while he was in the attic of a house fighting a fire Thursday afternoon.

Neighbors help fight home fire

GRANITE CITY — A potentially disastrous fire at 2628 Herndon Ave. was extinguished Thursday afternoon with the timely assistance of alert neighbors.

Jack and Barbara Hoppe, of Kirkpatrick homes, were driving by the one-story residence at 1:15 p.m. Thursday when Jack noticed flames shooting from a post on the front porch. He immediately pulled the car over, and Barbara phoned the Granite City fire department from a neighboring house.

Jack Hoppe and maintenance crew workers from the nearby Granite City Housing Authority began pouring water from an outdoor faucet onto the fire, putting out the visible flames.

When city firefighters arrived on the scene at 1:18 p.m., smoke was pouring from a vent on the roof.

Acting Capt. Tim Connolly said the fire had traveled up the hollow front porch post by means of a "chimney effect," spreading to the attic.

Firefighters donned masks and air tanks, vented the roof, and doused smoldering insulation in the attic. Firefighter Mike Richardson, who was inside the attic fighting the fire, was momentarily overcome by heat and exhaustion.

The blaze was under control in about 30 minutes, before it could involve the entire house.

Damage to the building was estimated at $8,000.

Connolly was asked if the efforts of these nearby prevented much more extensive damage.

"Absolutely," he said. "The fire would probably have burned through the roof if not for their actions. They helped prevent what could have been a devastating loss."

The home is owned by Mary Anderson, who lives there with her teen-age son, Brian.

Anderson said, "If it had not been for my good neighbors, who knows?"

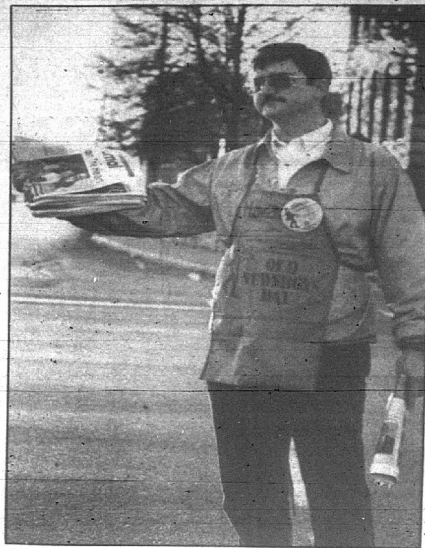

No one was home at the time the fire started.

GRANITE CITY — Sister Linda, of the Sisters of St. Elizabeth, arrived in Granite City on Thursday with a printed newspaper, Survived Nuns. The 7-page publication, if nothing else, helps dispel the myth of nuns being white-haired, dowdy women, having a no-nonsense attitude to everything. Linda, originally from the St. Elizabeth's Hospital in St. Elizabeth, Mo., said she received the Survived Nuns from the Child Development Center in St. Elizabeth, Mo. "Everyone As I walked one lady — was Catholic — ed out laughing could appreciate it." "Nun can't be a mission, but years of interest and reflection. It all led up to her life, would take and become a member of the Sisters of St. Elizabeth's community. "It wasn't as I thought," said of her family, friend, community at the Motherdy, Mo. "I think it's exciting, and wedding, go, mistakes didn't take excitement on." "Her parents, Hylla, were her two sister. Sister Mary, one of those excitement. "It's a heart-warming her age entered she said."

Linda Hylla becomes Catholic nun

GRANITE CITY — A few weeks before taking her final vows to become a Catholic nun, Sister Linda Hylla, a member of the Sisters of Divine Providence, sported a T-shirt at work one day with a unique message printed across the front of it: "Survived Nun Camp."

The T-shirt and humorous jab, if nothing else, went a long way to help dismiss the stereotype of nuns being decked out in black or white habits all the time and having a no-nonsense approach to everything in life. Nuns know how to have fun, too.

"I got some funny looks that day," admitted Sr. Linda, who received the shirt as a gift from Linda Hofflin, a registered nurse in the Operating Room at St. Elizabeth Medical Center. Sr. Linda, originally from Madison, works in the Adolescent and Child Development Units at the medical center.

"Everyone seemed to enjoy it. As I walked down the hallway, one lady — I'm not sure if she was Catholic or not — just bust out laughing. She said she could appreciate that."

"Nun camp," in actuality, proved to be more of a spiritual mission, punctuated by several years of intensive study, prayer and reflection.

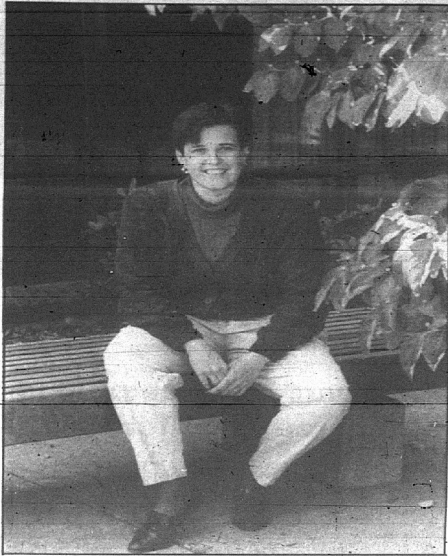

It all led up to the biggest day of her life, the day when she would take her perpetual vows and become a permanent member of the Sisters of Divine Providence community.

"It wasn't as nerve-wracking as I thought it would be," she said of her moment in front of family, friends, the religious community and, above all, God, at the Motherhouse in Normandy, Mo.

"I think it happened so spontaneously, and as all marriages or weddings go, there are some little mistakes here or there, but it didn't take away from the excitement of what was going on."

Her parents, Leonard and Loretta Hylla, were on hand, as were her two brothers and her sister.

Sister Mary Thomas, chairman of the board at SEMC, was one of those who shared in the excitement generated on Sept. 29. "It's refreshing and very heart-warming to see someone her age enter the sisterhood," she said. "A lot of people are lacking commitment to take this step of perpetual vows."

At 29, Sr. Linda is the youngest member of the Sisters of Divine Providence in the St. Louis metropolitan area. Her interest in the sisterhood began at an early age, when she was a seventh grade student at St. Mary's School in Madison. Until then she had been enrolled in public schools and had never given the religious life any thought.

"A friend of mine (Barb Franch Huber) who was a candystrapper here at the time invited me to go to the Motherhouse, and I told her I couldn't be caught dead in the convent. What am I going to tell my friends? It was like I was real embarrassed," she said.

Her friend eventually coaxed her to go and promised it wouldn't be as bad as she thought.

"She told me, 'You're not going to be bored; you're not going to be sitting around praying all day.' And I thought, 'Oh sure!' It seemed like punishment to me. But when I went over there, I realized it wasn't. These people were really very kind and seemed to care about one another."

For the next two summers, she became more acquainted with the Sisters by doing retreat work at the Motherhouse and helping out at St. Mary's School.

"I just kind of kept contact with them until my junior or senior year of high school," said Sr. Linda, "who was born at SEMC and raised in Madison. She recalled needing more time to reflect on what decision to make."

"It was somewhat of a struggle, because the stereotype I had of nuns was not very positive," she said. "I was wanting my popularity and yet I couldn't escape something that was deep within me. It was a big struggle getting away from what other people thought of me and what I needed to do for myself."

Soon, she began to realize her calling and, for the next two years, she prepared for a life-long commitment to the religious life by studying in Pittsburgh.

In 1985, she came back to the St. Louis area and made her first vows on Aug. 24. Three years later, she renewed her vows with the intention of making her final ones in 1990.

Later, Sr. Linda would observe a significance between making her final vows and working on the Adolescent and Child Development Units at St. Elizabeth Medical Center. "Bishop von Ketteler's whole philosophy is being lived out in all the things that Mental Health Services does for the community," she noted.

"It's like he is still alive and working, and the staff that works there (the Ketteler Center) is outstanding. It's exciting to be a part of that whole department."

On the Child Development Unit, she teaches children aged 5 to 12 about safety from physical or sexual abuse, as well as about body ownership. With adolescents, she does a variety of things, including teaching them about responsibility and how to make healthy choices for living.

While working evenings at St. Elizabeth, she attends graduate school at Washington University during the day, studying for her master's degree in social work. Her focus is family therapy.

"My goal is to work closely with the Mental Health Department," she said.

Unlike her T-shirt, her goals and her work are no laughing matter.

Fund to benefit family after fire

The Granite City Jaycees have created a benefit fund at Magna Bank of Madison County, Granite City, for Linda Whitford and her family.

Whitford, who resided in the 2400 block of Grand Avenue in Granite City with eight children, lost all of her belongings in a fire Oct. 25.

A spokesman for the Jaycees said Whitford is in need of furniture, household supplies and money.

Persons interested in donating household supplies and furniture may call 452-0367. Cash donations may be made at Magna Bank in Granite City.

Pontoon Beach tax hearing

The village will hold a public hearing Thursday, Nov. 29, 7 p.m., at the village hall regarding details of a proposed tax levy increase.

Announcement of plans for the hearing was made at a meeting of the village board last week.

In other action, the trustees unanimously voted to grant a business license to William Marchese to operate an audio equipment wholesale outlet, B & B Wholesale, at 4010 Pontoon Road.

The board also accepted a quit claim deed, by a 6 to 0 vote, signed by James C. Green, and granted Green easement rights for the remainder of his lifetime to put up signs along property on the south side of Pontoon Road.

The board passed a resolution, 6 to 0, granting Mayor Glen Wilson the authority to purchase equipment for the 911 emergency telephone system through the State of Illinois Purchasing Program.

Several residents of the Quality Beach Mobile Homes Park expressed concern and confusion regarding the difference between mobile home park rules and village ordinances. A meeting between residents, police and park owner Don Peacock is to be scheduled.

Happiness is a successful Tri-Cities United Way campaign

MILLION DOLLAR MAN: The Tri-Cities Area United Way goal has been topped. At the final report meeting, the total of $1,045,000 was announced. Campaign Chairman Jack Lee, seated, is shown with the Million Dollar Man presented to him by division leaders, standing from left, Mike Bilbrey, Cindy Mills, Bill Davidson and George Knecht.

THE JACK LEE FAN CLUB: Tri-Cities Area United Way campaign volunteers and supporters wave their fans to celebrate exceeding the 1990 drive's $1,015,000 goal by $30,000 at the final report meeting. Jack Lee led the successful campaign and his picture appears on each fan.

Briefly

YMCA physical program set

The Tri-City Area YMCA will begin new sessions of physical programs the week of Nov. 26. The new sessions include:

- Gymnastics: 6 p.m. for beginners and 6:45 p.m. for advanced students on Tuesday and Thursday.
- Fompos: 5 p.m. on Tuesday and Thursday.
- Yoga: 5 p.m. on Tuesday and Thursday, ages 15 and up.
- Huff and puff: 5:15 p.m. on Monday, Wednesday and Friday for advanced and 5:15 p.m. on Tuesday and Thursday for beginners.
- Mothers' morning out: 9:45 Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

All classes are for four weeks. Registrations are being taken now at the YMCA, 2001 Edison Ave., 876-7200.

The YMCA is a Tri-Cities Area United Way agency.

Babysitting is offered free for the parents who attend either huff-puff or morning out classes.

Smoke-Free Family Week set

In an effort to make the public aware of the dangers of smoking around children, the American Lung Association of Illinois has slated "Smoke-Free Family Week" Nov. 26-30.

St. Elizabeth Medical Center in Granite City will be assisting the Lung Association by distributing "I'm a Born Non Smoker" T-shirts to all babies born that week.

Parents will receive information about the dangers of smoking around their infant and receive pencils — instead of cigars — stating "It's a Boy!" or "It's a Girl!"

"The babies don't need to inhale cigar smoke anyway," said Karen Lewis, ALA regional director.

Lewis said that, statistically, the children of smoking parents are more likely to have twice as many colds and respiratory problems as children of nonsmokers.

Realizing that many parents have not yet made the decision to quit smoking, the American Lung Association of Illinois is urging them to step outside to light up.

Over 100 hospitals across the state will be participating in "Smoke-Free Family Week."

Youth Allocation Board, with emphasis on youth, accepting requests for funds

The Tri-Cities Area United Way Youth Allocation Board is currently accepting requests for funds, according to adviser Steve Hamilton.

The board, which consists of students from Granite City, Madison and Venice high schools, will distribute $6,000 to "groups helping youth" on Dec. 11, Hamilton said. Another $4,000 will be distributed in April.

Allocations are confined to groups helping youth (ages birth to 21 years) in the Quad City area.

Requests must include the name of the group requesting funds, the purpose of the proposed program, an estimate of the number of people who will benefit, and a statement of who will benefit and how.

As a follow-up, each recipient must return all receipts, bills of sale, and other verification of expenses to the Youth Board, with a letter explaining the results of the project, within two months of disbursement.

Written requests must be received no later than Dec. 1 and should be addressed to the United Way Youth Allocation Board, c/o Tri-Cities Area United Way, 1821 Edison Ave., Granite City.

"The Youth Allocation Board was an idea of United Way Executive Director Jack Quanton," Hamilton said.

"She had noticed the efforts of the Granite City High School Student Council's holiday drive. Another factor was that the three high school students who sat on the United Way allocations board last year showed such maturity and positive input."

Hamilton's reference is to Deanna Fry, a Madison student, and Rob Terrell and Leah Schuman, two Granite City students, who served on the allocation board last year.

They are also members of the Youth Allocation Board, along with Angie Jacobson, a White, Brandie Greco and Brandy Jenkins from Granite City High School, Priscilla Brooks from Madison High and Roberta Harshaw and April Harris from Venice High.

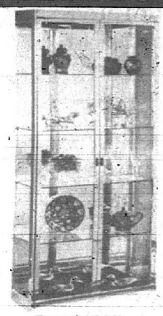

All are members of the National Honor Society or Student Council at their schools.

Hamilton stressed that the Youth Board has a complete say in the allocation of funds, and that his role is strictly advisory. The proposal to establish the Youth Board was presented to the United Way by Quanton, Hamilton, Schuman and Terrell and was accepted Oct. 12.

"The United Way has put faith in this group, giving it the power to allocate funds," Hamilton said. "It is a credit to the students and the community."

Quanton said, "They will one day be leaders of the community. They are learning the process by actual participation."

New minister at Harvest Assembly in Pontoon

The Boyer family.

The Rev. Roy A. Boyer, a native of Granite City, has assumed pastoral duties at the Harvest Assembly of God, located on Illinois 162 in Pontoon Beach.

Boyer and his wife, Teresa, and their 1-year-old son, Brooks Troy, are relocating here from Conway, Ark.

In addition to serving as associate pastor at Harlan Park Assembly of God in Conway, Boyer also served as campus pastor at the University of Central Arkansas for the Chi Alpha College Ministries.

This ministry is designed to provide discipleship and fellowship for the student, body and required coordination of weekly on-campus services and leadership for off-campus drama and outreach teams.

The minister has conducted numerous positive motivational assemblies, speaking to thousands of junior and senior high school students concerning real life issues and offering them choices in making successful decisions.

Boyer has appeared as a keynote speaker for the Arkansas Drug Free Youth organization, the annual Governor's Council Conferences, All-Star Retreats and the statewide "1990 Red Ribbon Campaign" held in Little Rock.

Boyer's ministry includes a broad scale of musical accomplishments. He has written about 100 songs and many have been recorded by other artists, including local artists Phil Enloe and Jim Cochran.

Now working on his second album, Boyer's first album received airplay in 37 states and made the top 40 charts. His sound tracks have been recorded and used by Christian World Soundtrax Inc. and Dale McCoy Productions, both of Oklahoma City, Okla., and the Eddie Crook Co. of Nashville, Tenn.

"Champions in the Conflict" in 1989 and "Stormin' the Strongholds" in 1990 were selected as theme songs by the Arkansas District Youth Department.

Boyer's other pastoral duties in Illinois included serving as associate pastor to Rev. George Ankarlo at Maryville Assembly of God and Rev. O. Douglas Carter at Pittsfield, Assembly of God.

His ministry career has taken him throughout the midwestern and southern regions, speaking and singing at revival services, retreats, outreach meetings, conferences, rallies and camps.

This year and in 1989, Boyer conducted seven evangelistic crusades in Guyana, South America. Invitations from religious leaders in Barbados, Trinidad, and the islands of the Netherlands and Aruba are being processed.

Teresa Boyer has worked in the clinical and management levels of nursing for the past seven years.

She also has participated in the development in various church-related activities, including Christian education, children's ministry, women's ministries, couples' retreats and youth programs.

Teresa Boyer will be assisting her husband in all programs designed to meet the needs of families.

A reception and potluck dinner, hosted by the congregation, welcomed Rev. and Mrs. Boyer on Sunday, Nov. 4, at the Harold Brown Recreation Center, Pontoon Road and Franklin Avenue.

Fire department auxiliary plans for Christmas dinner

A family Christmas potluck dinner, to be highlighted with an appearance by Santa Claus, was tentatively scheduled for Sunday, Dec. 16, at the November meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of Long Lake Volunteer Fire Department.

President Diane Naney called meeting to order. The Lord's Prayer was recited and every one was asked to remember firefighter Earl Arnold, who is in serious condition at Jewish Hospital.

Details of the October meeting were reviewed by secretary Johanna Dean and Bridgett Ashford gave the treasurer's report. The Sick and Cheer committee sent flowers to one member and three "get well" cards during October.

The food booth sponsored by the auxiliary at the Holiday Harvest was discussed and plans reviewed for 1991.

Diane Goodman, chairman of the auxiliary's Christmas party asked each member to bring an exchange gift to the Dec. 6 meeting.

Ellen Wallace was appointed to serve on Group One for the Auxiliary Kitchen at the Madison County Firemen's Hall bingo games.

Hostesses Bella Kreher and Bridgett Ashford served dessert refreshments to Audrey Ribbing, Corrine Kreher, Margaret Suggs, Evelyn Ringering, Mabel Kennerly, Etta Rutherford, Mary Ann Burton, Naney, Dean and Wallace.

IT'S BEGINNING TO LOOK A LOT LIKE CHRISTMAS...

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

The Christmas Season is rapidly approaching, and our City is without traditional Christmas decorations that many other communities enjoy. We lack of community spirit or interest in the traditional observance of the Holiday Season. It appears that the absence of a central organization to bring together the parties that could provide the resources to purchase and manage such a project may have been the problem rather than the lack of community spirit or interest.

Your local Chamber of Commerce and City Government are offering to be the organizer and catalyst for a fund drive to purchase decorations for the Central Downtown business district between 18th Street and 23rd Street from Madison Ave. to Cleveland Ave.

We are proposing to purchase street banners depicting the Christmas season to be mounted on street light poles by means of a pair of steel brackets. The banners would be put in place and removed for storage by certain departments of the city. The brackets once attached to the street light poles would remain in place and might be useful for other seasonal celebrations. It is estimated that there are 250 suitable locations in the area.

Corporations, clubs, organizations and individual citizens of Granite City will be asked to contribute to this effort as well as businesses and professions. There may be strong participation from the business and professional community. Please indicate your level of support by purchasing one or more sets of banner(s) and mounting brackets.

Check the appropriate number and drop in the return mail so we may be able to move forward with this project in time for this Christmas Season.

Sincerely,
R. L. Bush

READY FOR TAKEOFF is Carolyn Lucy, who now takes the pilot's seat when she flies.

Woman earns pilot license

Granite City resident Carolyn J. Lucy has earned a private pilot rotorcraft license from the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA).

The license, which permits Lucy to fly helicopters for recreation, was awarded after she performed a minimum of 30 hours dual and 20 hours solo flight.

In addition, Lucy had to pass oral, written and practical examinations given by the FAA. She received her instruction from Metropolitan Helicopters Inc. of Chesterfield, Mo., through Belleville Area College.

Lucy, who served as a second-class petty officer and hospital corpsman in the United States Navy from 1975 to 1979, plans to continue training to earn a commercial pilot license. She hopes to work as a pilot in rescue missions for area hospitals.

Lucy currently works as a communications specialist at a St. Louis graphic design firm.

Student member of Illinois College Literary Society

Shannon Gauen, a junior at Illinois College from Granite City, is a member of Gamma Delta Literary Society at Illinois College. She is serving as ISB president for the fall semester.

Gauen, who is majoring in economics and political science, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barry Gauen of Granite City. She is a 1988 graduate of Granite City High School.

The literary societies date from the early days of Illinois

College and retain traditions that include debates, speeches and literary criticism. The societies also provide a well-developed social program for all members.

Founded in 1829, Illinois College was the first college in the state to award the baccalaureate degree. Recently U.S. News and World Report and the Wall Street Journal have named Illinois College one of the best buys in college education.

Marshall enjoys family night

The Marshall School PTA held its traditional Fall Festival Family Fun night on Oct. 26.

There were eight games with prizes for the children.

PTA parents, Marshall faculty, and former Marshall students who are now junior and senior high school students worked the games. In charge of the games was Pam Cahill, PTA president. Ticket seller was Athalea Buga, PTA corresponding secretary.

Marshall faculty members made the desserts — cakes, pies, and decorated cookies and cupcakes. Nancy Sanders-Miles, PTA treasurer and Marshall fifth-grade teacher, was in charge of the food.

The PTA also sold two special Halloween favors, Head Boppers and Neon Tasse Wigs, for $1 each. A pumpkin, pizza, and candy bars were prizes given to those who guessed how many pieces of corn candy were in a jar. David Colp won the pumpkin, Gary Colp won the pizza and Jenny Garner won the candy bars.

Local student recognized

Gina Lenzi, a freshman at Illinois College from Granite City, was one of more than 100 students that were recognized recently at the Illinois College Annual Honor Scholarship Dinner.

The scholarship dinner is an annual event that brings together more than 50 scholarship benefactors and the students who receive these awards. During the past year, more than $1 million in scholarships was made available to students at the liberal arts college as a direct result of individual and corporate gifts.

Lenzi was awarded the Monticello College Foundation Scholarship for Women. She is majoring in economics and business administration and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lenzi of Granite City.

In a recent Money magazine study that included all of the nation's public and private colleges and universities, Illinois College ranked among the top 20 "Best Buys" in a college education.

First Choice of Pontoon

By Leonard Woolsey

The building was small, and the roof leaked. This Jim Williams decided, was the perfect place to open his 1st Choice Tire Co. 10 years ago.

The building hasn't changed much, but the business has. Originally selling only used tires, 1st Choice Tire Co. has grown to become one of the largest independent tire dealers in the Tri-Cities area, offering over one half dozen different lines of tires to choose from.

"We call it 'the little store that offers more,'" Jim said.

Jim has seen a lot of change in Pontoon Beach. He's been operating successful businesses there for over 20 years. He first operated both a Fina and a Clark filling station before venturing off into 1st Choice Tire Co. "I've been around here (Pontoon Road) so long, some of my old Clark gasoline customers' kids are coming in here now," Jim said.

Asked about his decision to leave the filling station operations, Jim said, "I decided that I wanted to work more 'one on one' with people." He takes this "one on one" philosophy very seriously. "We live with the tires from the moment we install them on your car to the moment you take them off. If you ever have a problem, we fix it. It's that simple," Jim said.

The low-key, casual atmosphere works for 1st Choice Tire Co. Everybody is greeted and promptly taken care of. No pressure — but information is free. Jim and Paul (who's been with Jim for 6 years now) really enjoy the service they provide.

"Heck, if you don't enjoy what you do — it's like a job!" Jim said. A young man walks in to pay for the four new high performance tires Paul has just put on his highly-polished Ford Mustang. Jim smiles. Chances are they've met before — when one of Jim's service stations provided gas for his parents' car years ago.

All Glass is All Service

By Leonard Woolsey

Just 5 years ago, you could find Tim Stoval driving around town in his glass replacement appointments in an old, high-mileage green station wagon. Today, no one knows exactly where that old station wagon is resting, but All Glass Service has gone onto become one of the fastest growing auto glass replacement companies in the St. Louis area.

Located at 4241 Hwy. 111 in Pontoon Beach, All Glass Service is proud of its humble beginnings. "Just shows you what hard work will do for you," Tim said.

Working with auto glass since he was 15 years old in his father's shop, Tim has always worked to provide the fastest, most cost competitive service around. All Glass Service, which originally only installed for dealers and body shops, has developed into a mobile glass replacement service that finds 80% of its public business calls in St. Louis.

Recently, Tim added several new services to his already growing in-shop business. You can now find upholstery service, headliners replaced and even new carpet installed in your vehicle.

Another unique category that Tim has found growing strong is that of used auto glass. "Most times you can save about 40% when you choose this way — and it's the same glass the manufacturer put in there in the first place," Tim said.

All Glass Service settled into Pontoon Beach for business reasons — good business reasons. "Pontoon backs the small businessman much more than larger areas and cities do," Tim said.

Tim's shop looks across a large open field of real estate that borders I-270 & 255. "We expect strong growth through the '90s in Pontoon Beach."

The phone rings, the van quickly leaves, just another busy day at All Glass Service.

SIUE dean of students named vice president

President Earl Lazerson of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville today announced a change of title for SIUE Dean of Students Constance Rockingham, who has been the university's chief officer for student affairs since 1983.

Pending ratification by the SIUE Board of Trustees at its November meeting, Rockingham will become vice president for student affairs, effective Oct. 15.

SIUE Chancellor Lawrence Pettit had approved the president's recommendation earlier. The annual salary for the position is $66,000.

Lazerson said his action had grown out of the changing needs of the student affairs unit during the past decade. The President pointed out this week in a message to the university community that from 1971 to 1980 the chief officer of student affairs at SIUE had been vice president.

However, the post was subsumed in 1980 by Academic Affairs as part of a general reorganization. Associated with the university since 1976, Constance Rockingham became acting dean of students in 1983 and was appointed permanently to that post a year later. As a result of her effective stewardship, the office again became a freestanding unit reporting directly to the president.

Rockingham, as dean of students, has developed or accepted responsibility for a number of major programs and services, including the Alcohol and Drug Awareness Program, the state-mandated student immunization program, the university Wellness Program, university housing and the Student Leadership Development Program.

Also, she has assumed leadership roles in developing the project for additional student housing and the proposal for the Student Health and Fitness Center.

Constance Rockingham
... vice president

Plans are going forward for the Student Health and Fitness Center to be constructed as part of the Vadalabene Center, and Rockingham has been assigned responsibility for the Vadalabene Center.

She serves as an officer of the Urban League of Metropolitan St. Louis, on the board of directors of Piasa Health Care in Wood River and the National Association of Student Personnel Administrators, and as a member of the Board of Trustees of State Community College in East St. Louis.

Rockingham received her baccalaureate degree from McKendree College in 1975, a master's degree from SIUE in 1978, and a Ph.D. in higher education administration from SIUE at Carbondale in 1981.

She attended Harvard University's summer 1990 Institute for Educational Management and previously completed a financial management program for women in higher education at the University of Central Florida and a leadership development training program at Howard University in Washington, D.C.

Mitchell students of week named

Maxine Duniphan covers the Mitchell area for the Press-Record/Journal. She can be contacted at 931-2714.

Congratulations to Mitchell School "Students of the Week"—Amanda Brown, Carrie Catanzaro, Laura Crites, Tanya and Bryan Johnson. The students were honored during the week of Oct. 29 for improvements in the first quarter of the 1990-91 school year.

The children are selected by their teachers. Each is chosen for his or her individual accomplishment.

Velma Presley of Barkley Avenue has returned home from an extended visit with her daughter and son-in-law, Sue and Frank Bultree in Atlantic Beach, Fla.

Flora Mouser of Roberta Avenue has returned from Cape Girardeau, where she attended the funeral of her sister-in-law, Alfreda Angle, wife of Flora's brother, Dale Angle.

Burial was at the Mount Zion Cemetery in Scopus, Mo.

Maybell Dillman of Guth Place home from Christian Hospital Northeast—St. Louis County, where she spent two weeks recovering from a heart attack. Mrs. Dillman, a member of the Chouteau Township Senior Citizens Club, is recuperating at home and would be pleased to hear from her friends.

Maxine Duniphan

Avalon Young, also a member of the Chouteau Township Senior Club, is home from St. Elizabeth Medical Center, where she spent a week for treatment of a respiratory problem.

Several members of the Chouteau Township Senior Citizens Club enjoyed a lovely Saturday night dinner cruise aboard the Belle of Grafton on Nov. 10.

Several in the group spent time on the upper deck, enjoying the night sky and the off-shore lights, while others lingered over coffee and played card games.

Jewell Burnett and Bob Brave, were guest speakers at the Nov. 12 meeting of the Steelworkers Organization of Active Retirees (SOAR) at the United Steel Workers' Local 67 Hall, 2334 E. 25th St.

Burnett and Brave are members of the Shriners' hospital unit at Ainsd Shrine Temple.

The program began with a film showing the type of help available at the Shriners' Hospital, plus a brief overview of the equipment and supports used for the children. Also described was how the supports are made and custom fitted to the needs of each child.

Guided tours of the hospital are available to interested groups, the guests said.

The Rev. Willard Myers, Chouteau Township Senior Citizens Club chaplain, visited club members, Charles and Norval Pickering, on Nov. 12 at the Rosewood Care Center in Alton.

The Pickering's were in a serious auto accident at the intersection of Third and Hawthorne streets in Hartford on Oct. 28. Both were rendered unconscious from the impact of the crash. Mrs. Pickering suffered six broken ribs, a broken collar bone and a punctured lung. Her husband sustained five broken ribs.

They are convalescing at the Rosewood Care Center, 3490 Humbert Road, Alton, Ill. 62002.

Volunteer attends convention

Mary Brown of Granite City, River Bluffs Girl Scout Council's president of the Board, joined 5,000 Girl Scout delegates and visitors in Miami Beach Oct. 20-23 for the 45th National Council Session/convention of Girl Scouts of the USA.

A highlight of the event was First Lady Barbara Bush launching the national Girl Scout literacy project, "Right to Read." Mrs. Bush is the honorary National President of the Girl Scouts.

Critically acclaimed author and educator Maya Angelou gave the opening keynote address. National pollster Louis Harris announced the results of a national survey on the impact of Girl Scouting on today's girls.

The National Council meets every three years to elect national board members, to review the past year's actions and to plan the direction of Girl Scouting for the next triennium.

"There was no question about why we were there," Brown said. "We were there to make sure that all girls have the opportunity to benefit from Girl Scouting."

She said she was led to believe that the plan was a part of the MESD's long-term plan, for which a fee increase was passed by referendum last year. She said that Lathrop presented the plan as if it had already been approved by the county Land Use Committee and the MESD.

"When I found out that all of this was untrue, I felt used," Hank said, in her opinion, cannot work.

"The pump that is out there, and state-run, does not run automatically. The pump is not turned on until all of Granite City has drained."

"In times of heavy rainfall, it can be months before the pump is turned on. That lake can only hold so much water. Where is it going to go if they don't turn on the pumps?"

Other residents present at the Nov. 8 hearing reported problems from those with basements and said they had been denied permits to build "even a garage" in their area.

The proposed name change to College of Southwestern Illinois has sparked strong comments from those on both sides of the name change issue.

Proponents cite the need for the college to have a name that more accurately reflects the big area it serves.

"It covers a much larger region than Belleville," said board member Robert Maxwell, Granite City, chairman of the board's Name Change Committee.

Opponents cite the tradition and academic reputation associated with the BAC name over the years.

homes in the area, on Roney and Angela drives, had "sunk."

City Public Works Director Brett Hank said that because it involves a special flood area, the proposal must meet certain established requirements.

"He read a letter from FEMA, the Federal Emergency Management Agency, which deals with flood insurance matters, stating that building in the area 'must comply with flood ordinances.'"

Hanke said that, in his opinion, the proposal complies with all ordinances. He added that he believes the project would mitigate rather than aggravate the drainage situation.

Lathrop admitted that the city has a drainage problem, but claimed that the lake could hold enough water until the pump could be used.

Lathrop gave four reasons why he thinks the city should approve the plan.

"First, it will create the tax base that the city needs."

"Second, it will increase storm water/sewage capacity."

"Third, it is an improvement in the area. Lots of people are against developers because we cut down trees. But this area was (unattractive) when I started work."

"Finally, it will reduce the number of burglaries in the area."

Lathrop cited several instances of burglaries in the area, and contended that the slough area was a "dropoff point" for stolen property.

Lathrop tried to demonstrate how the project would enhance drainage.

He displayed a pipe in the ground, which he said is the outlet for storm water in the frequently troubled Sara/Vesic/Lynch area. The outlet was below ground level. He said that a ditch was never dug to the drainage ditch, thereby causing a backup of mud, leaves and other debris in the pipe.

Lathrop said he planned to dig the ditch himself this weekend and run it to his proposed lake site. He said the city is planning to blow the pipe clear with its jet truck Monday.

City officials could not be reached to confirm the statement.

City Director of Economic Development Alan Ortbals said, "The city administration, in general, is pro-development."

He said two obstacles lie in the way of Lathrop's proposal. Ortbals said that, if the engineering proved to enhance drainage, and if the construction would not cause legal and funding problems, then he did not see where any objections could be brought.

City Attorney Mark Goldenberg said at the Plan Commission meeting that the commission could approve the plan pending his research into the legal aspects, such as grants and flood insurance. But the commission turned down the proposal.

This Thursday, Goldenberg said that, if the proposal was again on the agenda, he would do the research before the meeting to determine if the plan would jeopardize funding. Hanke and Goldenberg could not be contacted Friday.

"It's going to take 40 years to make that shift (back to a strong reputation). It'll take three generations," said board member Elizabeth Jenner, who along with board member Ted Farmer voted against the issue being placed on the ballot.

Board Chairman Larry Reinbeck said the community seems evenly divided on the proposal.

"One thing I've learned in the last 30 days is that this issue is bigger than the eight of us sitting around this table," he said.

"I have friends who want the name changed and I have friends who don't want the name changed. Now, I just have to choose which group of friends I need more of."

Reinbeck said he feels that the public should decide if the college's name should be changed. "This issue sits squarely in the conscience of the voters," he said.

Jenner and Farmer strongly disagreed with Reinbeck's assertion that the public should decide the name question.

"I think we (the board) ought to face up to this; either we should do this or don't do this. It's a very gutsy thing to do this," Jenner said.

Both Jenner and Farmer termed the board's decision "a

K mart continues tradition of Thanksgiving food baskets for needy

GRANITE CITY — K mart stores across the country this fall have continued their tradition of providing Thanksgiving food baskets for needy families residing in their areas. Recipients of holiday baskets will total more than 44,000 families. For the sixth consecutive year, the K mart Good News Committees will provide nutritious Thanksgiving meals to families identified by local civic organizations that work with needy families on a regular basis. Since the program was initiated, K mart associates have provided over 254,000 families across America with a Thanksgiving meal. "Thanksgiving is traditionally a time to give thanks. K mart's

Thanksgiving food basket program helps to carry out that tradition for these less fortunate," said Joseph E. Antonini. He is K mart's chairman of the board and chief executive officer. "This program has proven to provide a memorable holiday for everyone associated with it and symbolizes the spirit of Thanksgiving," Antonini said. Locally, each K mart store will deliver a minimum of 20 food baskets — each consisting of a turkey, potatoes, stuffing, vegetables, bread and pumpkin pie. K mart Good News Committees, organized by employee volunteers in each store, are actively involved in year-round outreach programs in the communities surrounding their K mart store.

Galaxy of stars

Local prep cagers feature many of area's top players

Led by Erwin Claggett, area high school basketball teams should have some individuals to watch this winter.

The Granite City Warriors, Madison Trojans and Claggett's Venice Red Devils have been practicing for two weeks now in preparation for the 1990-91 season. It's been a few years since all three teams had winning records, but that could change this year.

That will mainly depend on how much the Warriors improve, because the Trojans and Red Devils appear to be two of the top Class A teams in southern Illinois.

First, the Warriors. Granite City was 9-16 last year, and Bill Ohlendorf ended his first season with a 10-game losing streak, including a 64-48 loss to East St. Louis Lincoln in the first round of the Granite City Regional. They were a little better than that record indicated, and the Warriors are hoping for much better things this season.

Of course, most of the hopes center around junior twin towers Brian and Jeff Smith. Brian averaged 14.1 points and 6.9 rebounds, as a sophomore while netting all-conference honors. Jeff averaged 12.3 points and 9.4 rebounds.

opener isn't until Dec. 15 against Collinsville. Granite City is not in the Jacksonville Thanksgiving Tournament this year, but will play in the Salem Tournament in January in addition to the Collinsville Holiday Tournament. Civic Memorial replaces Wood River on the schedule.

For Madison (13-12 last year), this could be the year to pull even with their crosstown rivals from Venice — if they can survive another tough schedule featuring several Class AA teams. The Trojans, who lost 72-66 to Venice in the Freeburg Regional semifinals, return a solid group of seniors who figured quite prominently in the area's statistical leaders a year ago.

They are led by Andre Mays, who with 10.5 per game a year ago is the area's leading returning scorer. Mays also led the area in steals with five per game. Antonio Smith is the area's leading returning rebounder after pulling down 11.3 boards a game last year to rank fifth overall in the area. Smith also blocked 46 shots. Al Collins' (7-31 in two seasons) is the only player to have the area's leading returning assists man in 5-3 Brennan Wimbler, who dished out 8.2 assists per game last year to rank second in the metro east while also averaging 3.0 steals per game.

60 Goals per game.

The season Nov. 30 at Northwest High School in St. Louis, then they will also play in the Collinsville Shootout, facing Staunton in the first of the four-game card at the Shrine gym, Tuesday, Dec. 8 against Hillsboro, Madison, Mo., and Wednesday, Dec. 9, when they also plays in the Pincinyneville Shootout against Cairo or Jan. 26. They play in the Collinsville Friday Tournament and the Bellefonte Invitational Saturday. Other tough games include Alton, Venice, East St. Louis, Gibault, Springfield Calvary, Lebanon, Okawville, Jacksonville, Mater Dei, Edwardsville.

Venice (23-6 last year) will try to maintain its perch as the top Tri-Cities team. And with Claggett leading the way, the Devils are off to a good start. The St. Louis University signee is the area's leading returning scorer with 23.3 points per game a year ago. He also shot 77.8 percent from the foul line and a solid 42.8 percent from three-point range (53.9 overall from the field) as the Devils made it to the regional finals, losing 64-59 to Lebanon.

The Devils lose key graduates like John White, Doug Johnson and Charles Miller. But Harris has lost players like Wilfred Wigfall, Jesse Hall, Dale Turner, Daryl Jackson and Hosea King in recent years and kept rolling along.

Claggett is supported by junior Ivan Johnson (11.1 points, 7.7 rebounds), 6-5 Marcus Franklin, Reno Mosby, Winston Webb and Ben McIntyre. Venice coach Clinton Harris (158-40 in seven years) thinks this might be the fastest team he's had. For any one who has seen the Devils flounder and down the court in recent years, that's a scary thought.

The Devils open the season at home on Nov. 27 against Columbus, then the schedule really gets tough. They play at East St. Louis on Nov. 30, travel to defending state champion Westcliff on Dec. 4, host East St. Louis on Dec. 11 and play Mater Dei in Breese in another Superfan Shootout on Dec. 15. Venice will be in the Freeburg Holiday Tournament as well as the Sparta Tournament in January, with other tough games scheduled with Sumner, Alton, Gibault, Cardinal Ritter (featuring Claggett's future SLU teammate Julian Winfield) and a return match with Lincoln.

The junior-dominated Warrior wrestling team opens Wednesday at home against Carbondale Centralia and Edwardsville. A preview will appear in the Press-Record on Wednesday. The Warrior girls basketball team opens Nov. 26 at home against Madison. A preview will appear next Sunday. Previews of all three boys basketball teams will appear in the Nov. 21 Press-Record.

Choat sets 2nd state record

By Mike Kelly
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — Randy Cheat has done it again.

The Granite City native threw an 814 series on Nov. 1 at Bowling in the Tri-Cities Men's League. A pair of 289 games and a 236 put him over the top. But having an 800 series is nothing new to Choat, who also holds the all-time record of 13 consecutive 700 series in the 1987-88 season. He now has 12 800 series in addition to his 16 perfect games. Both of those figures are state records, according to the American Bowling Congress.

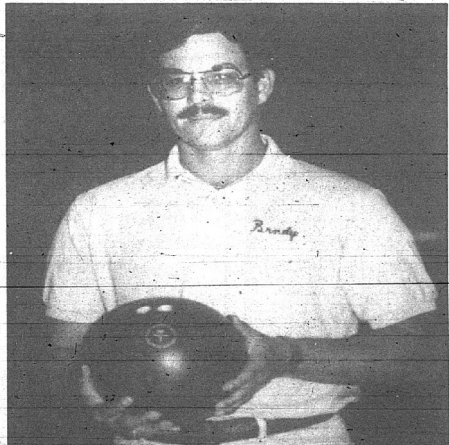

"I'm proud of my records," Choat said. "I've been bowling for roughly 18 years, and I have an understanding wife (Lori) who allows me to bowl three nights per week. It's definitely a hobby, but I've taken a great deal of pride in improving my game."

While some bowlers dream of throwing the perfect game, Choat prides himself on the 800 series.

"There's not that much pressure on a bowler throwing a perfect game," Choat said. "All you have to do is throw 12 strikes. But in an 800 series, you must maintain a 267 average. One bad frame could destroy your goal."

"I could have thrown two perfect games during my 814 series, but I missed the 10th pin in the opening game and I left the four pin standing in the second game. But I'll take the 800 series any time. I only had one 800 series last year, but four 300 games. "Having helpful teammates doesn't hurt. Doug Buehrer, one teammate who bowls with me on Monday nights, has given me some good insight on my delivery. Doug's bowled a lot of tournaments and has made himself a strong bowler as a 17-year-old. It's funny how times change, though, because it only seems like yesterday when I was giving Doug advice."

"It's just a case of getting locked into one spot on the alley," Choat said. "Unlike the pro tour, playing in a house gives you quite an advantage. If

"That's why a lot of your bowling scores are sky-high recently. Better equipment provided by the bowling alleys gives the bowler an advantage. After all, it's a business. If you bowl poorly, you'll take your business somewhere else."

Rosenburg makes All-Region squad

Jeff Rosenburg of Granite City has been named to the All-Region XXIV Soccer Team of the National Junior College Athletic Association.

Rosenburg was a freshman back for Belleville Area College and one of the team captains. "He recorded an assist out of the backfield, but his main assignment was to cover mistakes made by other backs," said Dutchman coach Larry Petri.

The 5-8 freshman is the son of Jerry and Rita Rosenburg and is a 1990 graduate of CCIS. He was a senior member of the 1989 state champion Warrior team.

Other BAC players gaining All-Region honors are Dave Winslow of Collinsville, Tony Drew of East Alton, Allen Groves of Godfrey and Mickey Tennant of Springfield.

BAC finished the season at 7-2 with 16 freshmen on the roster. The highlight of the year for Petri, a Granite City native who is in his eighth season (including when the team played at GCC), was a win over nationally-ranked Florissant Valley.

GCHA Bantam teams seeking more players

The Granite City Amateur Hockey Association's Bantam level teams are seeking additional players to complete rosters for the upcoming ice hockey season.

The Bantam teams are organized by age and skill level. Boys or girls ages 14-15 are eligible. There are two teams at this level. The A Team consists of the more advanced players and the B Team is open to less-experienced players or those just starting out.

The Steelers teams are members of the Missouri Amateur Ice Hockey Association and play against teams from throughout the St. Louis area, Cahokia and Springfield, Ill. Each team plays between 18-20 league games with about half the home games at the Wilson Park rink. League games begin at the end of

STATE VOLLEYBALL CHAMPS: The James Stuart Chapter of DeMolay volleyball team won the Illinois DeMolay championship on Nov. 3 at Sangamon State University in Springfield. Hospice offers hope for terminally-ill patients

GRANITE CITY — Death has a way of striking when many of us are least prepared for it. There are no need changes of saying "sorry," "thank you," or "goodbye."

"We all know we're going to die sometime. We just don't have the benefit of knowing when," said Sister Mary Louise Moser, MSW, a licensed social worker in the Hospice Department at St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

"Hospice patients have that advantage over us. They have the opportunity to make 'rightness' about anything they need to."

To some, that may seem like little consolation, compared to the fear and anxiety that goes with knowing death is imminent. But Hospice of Madison County offers a ray of hope to terminally-ill patients, most of whom have some form of cancer.

"We offer hope, but not the hope that you can get physically cured, although you can never rule out miracles," said Sister Mary Louise. "We do promise you three things, however: to keep you out of pain as best we can; that you won't be left alone; and that we will give you honesty."

Often, a Hospice member is the first person to tell the patient he or she is dying, she said. "The first time in to see the patient is our most difficult visit, when we talk with the person about having six months or less to live."

"It is often an emotional and painful experience for the client and his or her family, and it's difficult for the staff as well."

Strangers at the beginning, Hospice patients and staff often develop close relationships by the time of death.

"We find a lot of people who avoided us at first tell us later how they wished they had used our services earlier," said Mary Cambron, Hospice's patient-care coordinator.

"They're scared to approach us at first because they think we will depress them and talk about dying all the time, which isn't the case at all. We talk about whatever the client wants to talk about. We take our lead from the client."

Hospice is not a negative program, she added. "It's about living life to the fullest, for whatever time the person has," Cambron said.

Following the client's death, bereavement support is provided to families to aid them in the healing process.

Seeing death occur so often has made the Hospice staff respectful of the process, Sister Mary Louise said. "It can be a mystifying experience much like birth. The key for Hospice staff members in handling their work is being able and willing to face their own mortality."

The modern hospice movement was started 23 years ago in London by Cecily Saunders. Two years ago, there were almost 1,700 hospice programs in the United States, which has embraced the concept more enthusiastically than any other country.

"There's a misconception that there is one worldwide hospice, with branches all over the country," Sister Mary Louise said. "That simply is not true."

She went on to describe Hospice of Madison County as "family-oriented" and "another type of home care program" offered by SEMC.

Hospice of Madison County has been offering home care for the terminally ill in this area for the last 11 years. It is licensed as a full-service hospice by Illinois and certified to offer hospice benefits to Medicare and Illinois Public Aid patients. It is also accredited by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations.

Patients are seen by staff as often as needed, depending on how the patient is doing that particular week. Nurses are on-call 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

"We use a team consisting of a chaplain, medical director, nurses, social worker, and trained volunteers to provide care," Sister Mary Louise said. "Our main goal is to keep the patient at home. Life is usually better at home."

Patients have ranged in age from 27 to 99.

The department has a contractual agreement with several nursing homes in the community and offers special inpatient hospice rooms at St. Elizabeth, Anderson Hospital in Maryville and St. Joseph in Highland.

Hospice services are financed through private insurance benefits, Medicare and Medicaid. Contributions and memorials are welcomed from individuals and organizations.

For more information, Hospice of Madison County can be called at 788-5389.

'Rocky' down for the count

Film review by Harry Hamm
Correspondent

Rocky Balboa gets knocked back to his roots in "Rocky V" (PG-13), a story that endeavors to take the Italian Stallion from riches to rags without keeping him down for the count.

"Rocky V" has a talky, dull script and doesn't give the audience much to cheer about until the very end. This is the least satisfying of all the Rocky films. The story doesn't hold up. The proceedings are predictable.

The one good thing about "Rocky V" is that it scores a knock-out punch for any hopes of "Rocky VI."

His past fighting days have

Auditions set for 'Ten Little Indians'

The Alpha Players will hold auditions for the Agatha Christie thriller, "Ten Little Indians" on Nov. 19 and 20 at the Florissant Civic Center Theater. There are parts for eight men and three women. Auditions will consist of cold readings from the script.

For more information, call Dottie Bertolino, (314) 521-3707.

left him with more than his usual problems in the head. Doctors tell him he has suffered permanent brain damage and must give up the ring.

Rocky now is forced to sell everything to satisfy the IRS and his creditors. He even moves back to the old neighborhood in Philadelphia with his wife, Adrian, played by Talia Shire, and their son, Rocky Jr. The son is played adeptly by Stallone's real son, Sage, who exhibits far more acumen for acting than his father ever did.

Rated PG-13 (language, violence in the ring).
